Statement from President Roberto Micheletti's Negotiating Team in the "Guaymuras Dialogue"

"The "Guaymuras Dialogue" negotiations to resolve the political crisis in our country have progressed rapidly. Today, the negotiating teams began discussing the most difficult issue in the negotiations- the possible reinstatement or not of former president Zelaya within the rule of law and in line with our Constitution.

"The dialogue on this point has been cordial and both parties have progressed in the negotiations. However, at this time, no final agreement has been reached on this point. Any press reports to the contrary are false. We ask national and international media to be cautious in their reporting about the negotiations as they have a responsibility not to interfere with the dialogue.

"Tomorrow the negotiating teams will meet again keeping uppermost in our minds, as always, the strengthening of our democracy and the wellbeing of our country."
